A Fix for Families

kynect can help when employer-sponsored family plans are too expensive

Employer plan too pricey?

Many employers offer health coverage as part of their employee benefit package. Often, the cost goes up for employees who need coverage for spouses and dependents.

Families can qualify for assistance through kynect

How high is too high? kynect utilizes a federal tool to assess affordability. The tool examines the cost of the plan along with the family's income. If a plan is deemed unaffordable, the family qualifies for assistance through kynect.
