

What's Next After Applying for SNAP

After submitting your SNAP application, there are additional steps before you are approved to receive an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card. Below are frequently asked questions.

What is the next step after I submit my application?

- You will be contacted to complete an interview
- The head of your household, or an authorized representative, must be interviewed before the application can be completed

How will I know if my household is approved for SNAP benefits?

- You will receive a notice within 30 days if approved
- If your household is approved, you will receive a letter telling you the amount of benefits you will receive

Can I get SNAP benefits right away?

Your household may qualify for benefits right away based on application information, if you fall into ONE of the following categories:

- Rent/mortgage and utilities costs are greater than income, OR
- Monthly income less than $150 and resources total $100 or less, OR
- Members are destitute migrant or seasonal farm workers
